CONG. MEMBERS VOTE DOWN MOTION ON BORDER

Mysore, July 4

The ruling Congress party of the City Municipal Council today voted down an adjournmentmotion moved by the Opposition urging the Congress Working Committee to withdraw its decision of forming one man border commission for Mysore-Maharashtra. The meeting was presided by President D. Lingiah.

The adjournment motion moved by Sri Vedantha Hemmige and Sri T. R.Subba Rao was held by Congress members as 'untimely' in view of the reported reconsideration on the appointment of one man commission by the Congress Working Committee meeting tomorrow in New Delhi.

All the six Opposition members who were present walked out as a protest against the attitude of the Congress members.

It may be stated here that the Mysore Pradesh Congress Committee has already passed a resolution urging Congress Working Committee to withdraw its decision on one-man commission.

Self-Reliance In Defence

Prime Minister Inpir Gandhi stated yesterday that a nation could not be truly strong if it relied on imported arms and equipment.

Inaugurating the Rs. 16 crore Heavy Vehicle Factory at Avadi in Madras. she said India had clearly realised this and hence the foundations of indigenous defence production and defence science had been laid long before.

The Prime Minister said Indian scientists had found a number of new processes and produced a range of substitutes. They were able to crack the codes of secretly guarded alloy compositions in modern metallurgy and thus help the country.

However, she said, there was a great saving of time, energy and expense in buying the know-how rather than in attempting to rediscover what had been discovered long before.

PM ON BORDER DISPUTES

Smt. Indira Gandhi, the Prime Minister told newsmen that any solution to the inter State boundary dispute should not create more problems.

Asked if any rethinking was necessary on the proposed one-man commission to settle the Mysore-Maharashtra boundary dispute, she pointed out that this matter would be considered at the forthcoming meeting of the Congress Working Committee.

She said there was some feeling that boundary dispute between Maharashtra and Mysore was a 'sleeping matter' and had been suddenly 'activised'. It had been boiling for many years and it was on this basis that the Bangalore AICC passed a resolution.

She said there was no point in allowing a thing to boil to divert attention. It would rather be better to do something in the matter.

HARD DAYS AHEAD: PM WARNS

'If we only face the next few months with determination, courage,discipline and unity, we can turn the corner and once more march ahead stronger and speedily', she said.

PM DEFENDS POLICIES

The Prime Minister, Smt. Indira Gandhi, addressing a public meeting yesterday at Madras, defended the policies the Government had been pursuing and said, 'with all the emphasis at my command everything that is happening in the country is proof that these policies are right'.

She said we were able to meet crisis after crisis with confidence and unity proved that these policies were right. 'No matter what steps we take today, no matter we are in certain difficulties today, all these are not because our policies were wrong but certain events which took place increased the burden on us immeasurably'.

Import Substitution

CALL TO SCIENTISTS

Bangalore, July 5

Union Education Minister Chagla yesterday called upon the Indian scientists to help in accelerating the process of indigenous substitution for imported components, in view of devaluation.

Inaugurating the 16th conference of the directors of national laboratories, he asked the research workers to understand the basic reasons for devaluation and to learn the lesson of self reliance which it had taught.

He was confident that science talent in the country could find ways and means of import substitution and it was in this connection that the relationship between industry and laboratory research assumed importance.

The industry, he said, should be able to utilise the results of research for which continuous dialogue between the scientists and the industrialist was essential.

Readers' Forum:

MORALITY VS. DRINK

Sir—Prohibition Rules have been relaxed in our State and shops dealing in liquors retail and wholesale have made their appearance in Mysore City as in other cities, which were once prohibited areas.

Posters attracting the attention of the young, old and innocent about the availability of liquor in any quantity havemade their prompt appearance in the principal streets of Mysore.

I am one of those who is concerned with the present generation, I would like the authorities kindly to ponder for a minute over the disastorous consequences these advertisements will have on the minds of the younger generation.

If the Govt. feels that it can augment its revenues by relaxing prohibition rules, it must also look at safe-guarding the morality of our younger generation. Advertisements of liquors is prohibited under the Prohibition Act. But it is not enforced. Whatever might be the arguments for relaxing the prohibition rules it is immoral to allow huge posters with women and wine to appear in the public streets to tempt young men to take up to this fashionable babit.

Let us be loyal to the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi-who sacrificed his life to uplift the poor, diseased, ignorant and downtrodden people of our country. I am anxious that Government should take immediate action to ban the advertisement of liquors in public streets since they have faith in in "Prohibition" and support of law.

Sri V. V. Giri, the Governor, inaugurating said that both the Central and State Governments must subsidise the production of scientific and technical books so that the rupee devaluation would not hurt the capacity of libraries to purchase books.

VIETNAM CONCERN OF MANKIND

Prime Minister Indira Gandhi said yesterday at Brioni (Yugoslavia) that a special responsibility devolves on the non aligned countries to find ways and means of a just solution which meets the legitimate rights and hopes of the people of Vietnam.

President Tito said 'the cold war has been transformed into armed intervention and use of brute force in some parts of the world. Aggression in Vietnam which is threatening to escalate into a new conflagration of broad dimensions provided an example of this type of policy. FAMILY PLANNING PROGRESS SLOW

"There is a wide gap between family planning plans and the capacity and machinery to implement them". The tendency was to make a number of paper schemes which remained unimplemented, stated Dr. Nicholas, J. Demerath, Ford Foundation family planning expert, yesterday at Delhi.

He said the progress achieved was very slow. Family planning was one of India's number one problems. It should be given top priority.

Dr. Demerath said that with a determined and action-oriented leadership and a well organised implementation machinery, India can markedly reduce its birth rate in five years. "It can be done, if the Government really means business", he said.

States Asked to Effect Economy

The Union Government has decided to effect a three per cent general cut in the revenue budget and a five per cent cut in the capital budget.

Prime Minister Indira Gandhi made this announcement yesterday in the Chief Ministers' conference.

Smt. Gandhi said that in addition to these immediate general cuts, there would be further substantial reductions on a selective basis which would be worked out soon in respect of individual Ministries and departments.

It was also proposed to impose cuts in items like travelling allowances, the ure of staff cars and a few other small items. These might not yield a great deal of money 'but would help create a climate of economy', she added.

She called for resolute action at every level by the Central and State Governments to achieve economy in Government expenditure.

She said economy could not take place at the cost of postponing development but there were innumerable other ways in which substantial economies could and must be achieved.

One area for substantial saving, she said, was that of civil works. Capital costs on civil works could be reduced.

She also referred to the need to avoid deficit budgets and said 'it may be extremely difficult for the Centre to assist States in meeting budget deficits'.

Finance Minister Sachin Chaudhuri said the Government would like to save 10 to 15 percent.

He said the Centre had to pay Rs. 94 crores to meet their overdrafts. There had been over drafts of the order of Rs. 20 crores during the last three weeks. He warned that if this went on, it would not be possible to hold the price line. He called for cooperation of the States in solving the problem.

Home Minister Nanda told them that some Opposition parties had made a policy of disrupting communications and transport. If this went unchecked now, these parties would 'put us into a difficult situation'.

UNIVERSITY OF MYSORE

ENTERING GOLDEN JUBILEE YEAR

Mysore, July 25

The University of Mysore, today, enters its fiftieth year and is celebrating its golden jubilee.

We give below a short sketch of its history:

The University of Mysore, was the first Indian University, to be founded outside the limits of the British India in 1916. Earlier, for about twenty-five years, the Central College, Bangalore and the Maharaja's College, Mysore were affiliated with the Madras University. These institutions, one famous for Science and another for liberal Arts became nucleus of the University which came into existence by an act of the Mysore Legislature in 1916.

The University was the favourite child of the royal family. Dr. Annie Besant in the Convocation address in 1924 described the University "as the first University to be founded by an Indian ruler for the benefit of the people". His Highness Sri Krishnaraja Wadiyar, the first Chancellor of the University, said "It will always be remembered as a landmark in the history of Education in Mysore." The birth of the University was greatly assisted by Sir M. Visvesvaraya, an Engineer Statesman.

The strength of the University rose from about 600 in 1916 to about 6,000 in 1941, the year of the Silver Jubilee. From the year of Silver Jubilee to the year of Golden Jubilee is a great leap forward. The University made progress in all directions. In free India there was demand for academic freedom, the Universities were keen on good standards in education and they wanted freedom from interference which might endanger University's life. The creation of the University Grants Commission which finances most of the schemes was a boon to university education in India. The University won its autonomy in 1956 by virtue of another Act. This was a milestone in the history of the University, and it was in keeping with the pattern of University Education everywhere.

MANASA GANGOTRI

The Post—Graduate and Research Departments of the University were separated from the Under-graduate Courses and a new campus called Manasa Gangotri was established.

The Manasa Gangotri—the heart of the University-has a name that speaks for itself. It is situated in a sort of pastoral atmosphere over-looking the Kukkarahally lake. The Post-Graduate Departments have found a congenial atmosphere for work. The University Library with a collection of about one lakh of books is a place of great attraction to everyone. The Reading Room with a large and variety of magazines is richly used by scholars and the Post—Graduates. There is also an in-service library in the Old University Library for the benefit of the citizens of Mysore.

In the recent years the University has started a number of new courses in response to the demand. A Music College has been started and degrees in Music and Diplomas in Dance are conferred. The University Department of Library Science, started about two years back awards Post-Graduate Degrees. The Prasaranga, Department of Extension Lectures, is busy as ever, in extending knowledge to all.

PRESIDENT DENOUNCES VIOLENCE

Overcome Differences By Mutual Understanding

Mysore, July 26

President Radhakrishnan yesterday deprecated the tendency of resorting to violence and destruction of property in the country and said that differences and discard should be settled by mutual understanding.

Inaugurating the year—long golden jubilee celebrations of the Mysore University at the specially erected pandal at Manasa Gangotri, the President said: "Look at our country today and have a fine and full view of the social and political scene. You will discover that there is a moral crisis. In ever so many places people are behaving as if they do not belong to our country and sullying the name of our country. We do not seem to realise that the country belongs to you, to me and to all of us. If any one does anything which results in the loss, it will only result in destruction of national property."

"It is essential at a critical time like the present one that we should try to find out what real education is. It is dissemination and adoption of right," he said.

The President said there was always a streak of violence which made a man revolt, slay and murder. Differences and discard mean violence. But they should be settled by mutual understanding. Declaring that democracy and violence could not go together, he said: "If you are a true democrat you have to over come violence".

Dr. Radhakrishnan said: "If you want to be a true university man, it is essential to have canons of conduct and certain norms of behaviour". They should know that they had a motto that gaining knowledge was not merely scholarship, nor mere criticism but it was fundamentally education.

He said "Gnana" without "Viveka" was nothing. They had a motto which said Gnana was not merely scholarship but education in depth.

He advised them: "Whatever subject you take up try to study it, penetrate into it and go to roots of that subject. This is something that makes you a great scholar. You should have discrimination to distinguish between right and wrong"

The President, who earlier laid the foundation stone of the All—India Institute of Speech and Hearing at Manasa Gangotri on a 35—acre land donated by the Mysore University, referred to the magnitude of the problem of the people suffering from speech and hearing defects.

He said: "All education on one side is search for truth and on the other pursuit of social betterment. Do not imagine that welfare solely consists in abundance you have. As things increase desires also increase". So it was their duty to see that the defects of mind and body were cured.

Dr. Radhakrishnan, struck by the warmth and affection shown by the people of Mysore, said that the whole of Mysore was friendly to him. He was connected with the University of Mysore, in one way or another, he said.

He paid compliments to the late Maharaja Sri Krishnaraja Wadiyar and his illustrious adviser Dr. M. Visvesvarava for starting the University. He said that they had one aim of getting the best people from all over the country They had no parochial considerations in collecting men on merit only and to make the University proud of the State.

Riotous Scenes In Parliament

The monsoon session of Parliament opened with riotous scenes yesterday. Angry Opposition members forced the adjournment of both Houses of Parliament for brief periods and led to suspension of six members.

The Rajya Sabha was adjourned twice and the Lok Sabha once for restoration of order and there were walk-outs from both Houses.

The storm broke out in the Lok Sabha first over the Uttar Pradesh strike and later on an Opposition no confidence motion which was admitted. In the Rajya Sabha the storm blew up over developments in U. P.

The four members expelled from the LokSabha included Sri Mohammed Elias for the rest of the session, Sri Jai Bahadur Singh for a month and Sri Homi Daji for a fortnight, all belonging to the right Communist group.

Earlier, the House was adjourned for about one hour when Sri S. M. Banerjee, an Independent, named by the Speaker and suspended for 10 days, refused to leave the House.

Death Sentence In Nanjangud Murder Case

Mysore, July 28

Sri G.S.Gunjal, District and Sessions Judge, Mysore, yesterday sentenced Srikanta of Nanjangud to death on a charge of murder. He was also sentenced to ten years' rigorous imprisonment for robbery.

The prosecution alleged that the accused who was a part time servant, murdered Sharada Bai, wife of H. R. Subba Rao, tea agent, Nanjangud, when she was alone in the house on Oct. 10, last year and robbed her of money.

The Judge observed that it was an extremely brutal and diabolical murder, in that the accused mercilessly hammered the deceased with knife and chapper, causing as many as 40 injures

He agreed with the contention of the Public Prosecutor that it indicated the intensity of his cruelty and it was all the more unfortunate that the accused should have thought of murdering the deceased when she had just a couple of hours before served him food at her residence and the only punishment that could be inflicted in this case was extreme penalty provided by law.

The Judge further said there was absolutely no extenuating circumstances and there could be no doubt that it was a deliberate and preplanned murder, solely actuated by monetary gain.

Sri S. L. Lakshme Gowda, Public Prosecutor conducted the prosecution.

Wasteful Discussion

Mysore, July 30

A special meeting of the City Municipal Council convened yesterday ended after about 100 minutes meeting without any definite subject for discussion.

The special meeting sought to consider what would be the position of the Council if the proclamation of emergency was withdrawn before Sept. 9 of this year, the date of expiry of the Council and what action had to be taken on this behalf.

At the outset, Sri Chikkarangappa raised a point of order stating that the meeting had not been convened according to procedure and the subject for consideration had not come from the chair in a resolution form and there was no precise subject.

The President, Sri D. Lingiah, over-ruling the point of order explained the purpose of the meeting. He said as he had some doubts as to the position of the Council if the emergency was with drawn, he had called the meeting to get suggestions from the Councillors so that recommendation could be made to the Government accordingly.

The members, both Opposition and Congress, felt that the provision 3 of the Mysore Local Authorities (Postponement of Elections and Continuance of Administrators) Act 1965 had made it clear that the term of the councillors or members of local authorities who are in office on the date of the Act and whose term or extended term will expire during the period of operation of proclamation of emergency shall deemed to be extended upto and inclusive of the last day on which the proclamation of emergency remains in operation. The term of the councillors will continue until the first meeting of the reconstituted local authority at which a quorum is present, according to the Act. Hence no discussion or suggestion was necessary, they said.

PRODUCE OR PERISH

Union Labour Minister Jagjivan Ram yesterday gave a call to the nation to 'produce or perish' to overcome the difficult economic situation.

Inaugurating the 24th session of the Indian Labour Conference at Delhi, the Minister said production should be maximised and strict discipline observed in our economy and national life, so that the full benefits of devaluation could be achieved. 'We have to introduce austerity standards everywhere and conserve all our resources', he added.

Opposing the suggestion for a wage freeze, he said without a price freeze, any talk of a wage freeze was unrealistic.

FAILURE TO HOLD PRICES

Both Congress and Opposition members yesterday protested in the Lok Sabha when Commerce Minister Manubhai Shah asserted that the prices of essential commodities had not risen unreasonably anywhere after devaluation. They criticised the Government's handling of the price situation.

The Speaker said that he would allow a discussion on the question if proper notice was given.

DEVALUATION ON EXPERT ADVICE

Prime Minister Indira Gandhi asserted in the Lok Sabha that devaluation was taken after much thought and consultations with experts in the Government and outside and not under external pressure. It was not the climax of wrong economic policies persued by the Government.

She dismissed the charge that the decision was taken 'with our backs to the wall' and said it was taken with our eyes open.

Smt. Gandhi said devaluation itself was an effort to make imported things costlier and thus import a new dynamism to the spirit of self reliance. She agreed that the swadeshi spirit should be more vigorously propagated and in fact this was what she had been doing on her recent tours.

She said greatest attention should be paid to three things: holding the price line, boosting exports and increasing internal production by liberalising imports for export oriented industries.

No Poverty Freeze

PM AGAINST SMALL PLAN

Prime Minister Indira Gandhi yesterday ruled out a small plan as it would mean a 'freeze on poverty'.

In her broadcast to the nation, she said a holiday from planning or a small fourth plan was not the answer to the difficulties facing the country. A small plan could not fulfil the needs of the people. In a sense, it would mean a 'freeze' on poverty, for the poorest and the weakest They would be hurt by a small plan, not those who were well off.

The Prime Minister underlined the immediate need to solve the problem of poverty 'which gives edge to such divisive forces as communalism, casteism, linguism and regionalism. Ultimately even our security depends on our economic strength.

Reiterating that the Government's aim was development in conditions of financial stability, she said, 'we are determined not to allow inflation to distort our economy. But the fear of inflation shold not be carried to a point where it makes us far too timid and inhibits in bold enough terms A right balance has to be struck'.

PAK MILITARY BUILD-UP

Threat To India's Integrity

Pakistan assisted by China and 'certain other countries' was building up its military machine thus constituting a threat to India's integrity.

Disclosing this to the Lok Sabha, Defence Minister Chavan said that not only had Pakistan recouped the losses in armed and aircraft sustained in the 1965 operations but had increased its strength.

Sri Chavan said that while there should be no panic and the situation faced cooly and calmly, 'thecountry will not shrike its responsibility and will face this threat'.

He would deplore that Pakistan should be deploying its resources on the arms build up. 'It may be suit China to try to attack India through the agency of Pakistani forces. I hope Pakistan will see the folly of any attempt to seek solution for force. This we are bound to resist', he added.

The Defence Minister said that Pakistan was trying to increase its army from five divisions to 11. It already had two armoured divisions but the losses in armour it suffered in September 1965 operations had depleted the strength of these divisions.

Pakistan had received 200 tanks from China, 'which should go a long way in recouping the losses it sustained'.

Simultaneously a number of new Pakistan Occupied Kashmir divisions had been raised and the POK manpower had increased to more than 30,000. In equiping these forces, Pakistan had been largely assisted by China

Sri Chavan disclosed that China had agreed to supply enough equipment to army its two divisions In addition, China and other countries had provided it with financial assistance and this had helped Pakistan procure through 'certain other countries' a large stock of arms and ammunition.

Pakistan's air force which was crippled as a result of the 1965 operations had also recouped its strength. Pakistan today had five more squadrons of fighters and fighter bombers than in 1965

Sri Chavan said 'we cannot therefore, afford to relax in our defence efforts. We have to take adquate counter measures'

AMITY WITH PAK AND CHINA

PRESIDENT'S CALL ON INDEPENDENCE EVE

President Radhakrishnan has called for friendship with Pakistan and China, "a just settlement of the questions dividing India and China was not impossible", he said.

In a broadcast to the nation on the eve of the Independence Day the President said that "Nothing should be avoided because it is thought impossible. The only relevant question is 'Does it require to be done?' then we must try to do it."

Dealing on the need of India-Pakistan friendship, the President said 'The economic development of both our countries-India and Pakistan requires our making up with each other. Friendship between the two is not difficult. We are ethnically the same people. We have the same cultural background and common history. We speak the same languages. Why should we not become good friends? This is what we should work for.'

'Given goodwill, we can co operate immediately in the matter of refugees, border adjustment, river waters and trade,' he said.

Warning the two nations, Dr. Radhakrishnan said that if 'we persist in misunderstanding and resort to building up arms, both our countries would be enfeebled and endangered.'

Speaking on domestic matters, the President deplored the growing lawlessness in the country. Strikes, demonstrations and agitations for trivial reasons were increasing. 'In an effective democracy its members should be willing to accept law and lawful authority. No man, or group could be his or its own law giver,' he added.

"Austerity should start with those at the top for the large majority of the people were already leading austere lives by necessity", Dr. Radhakrishnan said.

"Long hard hazardous years lie before us, Let us enter on them with mature minds and clean hearts and above all with faith in our future", he added.

Learn Sanskrit

GIRI's CALL TO YOUTH

Mysore, Aug 17

Governor Giri stated here today that the younger generation should be asked to learn Sanskrit as a preference to Hindi to understand the real ancient culture and true spirit of vedantha.

Inaugurating a week-long Sahityotsava celebrations of Maharaja's Sanskrit College Vidyarthi Sangha, he said unfortunately "we have not developed Sanskrit laungage which is the mother of languages"

"In fact I feel the linguistic fanaticisms and abuses that we see today in the lingustic States could have been avoided if only we had originally insisted in making people to learn Sanskrit language". By this Sanskrit could have been the lingua franca, he said.

The Governor said that the younger generation by learning Sanskrit can acquire study of other languages including Hindi much more easily. Hence even now we should start teaching our children the rich language, he said.

If we ultimately could achieve this, Sanskrit in substitution to Hindi or English, would do well for our country, he added.

Sri Giri referred to Ayurveda system of medicine and said that it entirely depended on Sanskrit language and lack of this knowledge today had set back the progress and encouragement to Ayurveda

Governor Giri announced donation of Rs 200 as a token of appreciation to the Sanskrit College which was doing yeomen service for the spread of Sanskrit.

Earlier, Sri K. M. Revanasiddiah, Principal of the College, welcoming said that the college which was started in 1868 by Mummudi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, was celebrating its 98th Sahityotsava.

Build Up Character

GOVERNOR'S ADVISE TO YOUTH

Governor Giri advised the youth here today to be truthful, honest and have a sense of integrity. 'Unless you build up these characters the future of our nation will be ruined', he said.

He was presiding over the Founder's Day celebrations of Banumiah's Educational Institutions.

He said that unless the youth of the country build up a strong character they will not be good citizens and Mother India will not be pleased. He asked them to try to improve themselves in every manner possible "But remember Independence should not be interpreted for impertinence and liberty for licence," he said.

The Governor said that 19 years of Independence have passed but we have yet to reach the ideals set by the father of the nation, Mahatma Gandhi, and secure economic independence.

In this the youth should realise their responsibility and remember that duty first and then came rights and privileges. With this in mind they should work to establish firmly the hard won independence and also see that we secure economic swaraj.

Cong. Election Manifesto

The Congress election manifesto, released yesterday, proposed 'social control' over banking institutions and impose limitations on urban income and property.

The 14 page manifesto says that social control over banks was necessary to serve the cause of economic growth 'more effectively' and to make credit available to the producer in all fields where it was needed

Referring to urban incomes and property, it says that restrictions must be placed on individual holdings of urban land for preventing racketeering in land in urban areas. The lower middle and working classes should be enabled to secure housing sites at reasonable rate

Expressing concern about the spiralling of prices, the manifesto observes that consumer cooperative stores will be an effective deterrent in that regard.

It calls on the people to strengthen the spirit of swadeshi and accelerate the movement towards self reliance by reducing import of essentials and eliminating non essential imports altogether.

The manifesto refers to the conception of a socialist society where the principal means of production would be under social ownership and control, and the commanding heights of the economy 'shall not be in private hands'.

Self sufficiency in food by 1971 and in that connection the supreme necessity to achieve an output of 120 million tons in the fourth plan are also stressed in the manifesto.

Referring to the important role which external assistance could play in the initial stages of economic development, the manifesto urges that it is 'essential to reduce the period to the minimum and diminish specialy the amount and range of external assistance.'

Tighter Control Over Food

The Foodgrains Policy Committee in its report to the Government of India has expressed the view that for the next five to ten years there cannot be any decontrol of food and overall management of food by the Government is unavoidable".

Advocating national management of food, it has said that the issue before the nation was as vital as that involved in a "military threat to the country's security" and it was therefore necessary for the Centre to exercise some authority to ensure that this policy is translated successfully into effective action

While recommending the formulation of a national food budget, the committee has suggested the setting up of the National Food Council for "formulating, reviewing, revising and implementing the budget".

It has recommended the continuance of the existing inter-State restrictions on the movement of foodgrins and has said that inter State operations in foodgrains "must be the sole concern of the Government and governmental agencies."

Varsity's Earn & Learn Scheme

Mysore, Sept 22

The 'Earn and Learn Scheme' of the Mysore University was inaugurated this morning at Crawford Hall by Co-operation Minister K. Puttaswamy.

Fifty students have been selected to be provided part time jobs in gardening, cafetaria etc For two hours of work one Rupee will be paid to each student.

Sri Puttaswamy hailing the project hoped that the scheme which make the students depend on themselves would also revolutionise their thinking.

He suggested that students who could depend upon themselves financially should also take up part time jobs and give their earnings to the poor students.

The Minister praised the Mysore University for forging ahead with implementation of new ideas and schemes for the welfare of the students.

Vice Chancellor Shrimali welcoming said that education should be provided only through work. Unfortunately in our society today there were two classes of people, one who work with hand and another who work with mind. This kind of artificial division of the society was harmful. There should be closer link between education and work. The 'Earn and Learn' Scheme was an attempt made by the Mysore University in that regard, he said.

Dr. Shrimali said that partial support by students in education develop a sense of dignity and self-respect. From the point of view of the interest of their family and also in broader outlook of society, students should earn something and partially support their studies.

The Vice-Chancellor said that at the first instance the scheme was confined to the University campus. He suggested that various industries around Mysore City should be contacted for providing part-time jobs for students.

FOLLOW GANDHIAN PATH

President Radhakrishnan yesterday deplored the growing violence and indiscipline in the nation.

He said verbal violence in legislatures and physical violence in the streets would impede the progress of the social revolution which Gandhiji had started.

In a broadcast to the nation on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanthi, the President reminded the nation that Gandhiji was the greatest revolutionary of recent times. In these days of doubt and uncertainty when there appeared to be a general tendency to resort to violent methods of protest, it was necessary to recall this fact.

Dealing with the problem of growing student indiscipline and lawlessness, the President said that this stemmed from lack of proper understanding of the values of our country.

He said the students should be made to understand the fundamental realities of our culture and values.

Reason For Student Unrest

Union Home Minister Nanda had discussions with Dr. C.D. Deshmukh, Dr. D. S. Kothari and Maj. Gen. Virendra Singh, about the present student unrest in the country.

It was suggested that an organisation should be created which could look into the genuine grievances of the students and remove them.

It was felt that vice-chancellors and principals should have enough authority if necessary.

All agreed that prompt steps should be taken to isolate outsiders and known trouble-makers whenever they were found trying to fraternise with students.

It was also stated that reports of police excesses sometimes got grossly exaggerated and became an issue for further agitation.

According to Maj. Gen. Virendra Singh, who toured in several States and met Chief Ministers and student leaders, the agitation was entirely political and instigated by the Communist Party.

VC's Views

A large number of vice-chancellors feel that the student unrest in the country cannot be checked by merely treating it as a law and order problem.

Students Mob Attack Railway Stations

The students unrest has spread to other places in Uttar Pradesh and the police opened fire at Agra and Dehra Dun to quell the students violence yesterday.

Two persons were killed in Dehra Dun and a dozen injured in student police clash. One police vehicle was burnt.

A violent mob, mostly of students, attacked the railway station and the bus stand at Firozabad, looted tickets at the station and set fire to office records at the bus stand booking stall.

The Hiranganj railway station was also attacked by students and the communication system was damaged.

Three railway stations on the northern railway were also mobbed by the students.

While some of them attributed the student unrest to general social discontent, others blamed the politicians for it.Some even took it as a part of the world phenomenon, representing the growing disilusionment of the youth.

Most of them felt that student indiscipline was a national evil but students cannot remain unaffected when there was disorder outside.

Mysore, Oct. 7

Chief Minister Nijalingappa expressed his view here on Wednesday that if the country needed atomic weapons for safeguarding its security and freedom, he would support undertaking of its manufacture.

Speaking at the Gandhi Jayanti celebrations at the Townhall, he said that China and other countries were manufacturing these bombs and today the world with its vast expansion in field of science was at a precipice.

The nuclear power should be wedded to peace and in this context the principles of Mahatma Gandhi were essential for mutual welfare, he said.

Egg Preservation

CFTRI's FORMULA

Mysore, Oct 8

The Central Food Technological Research Intitute has perfected a technique for improving the keeping quality of eggs.

The technique consists in coating the eggs with an oil based on a petroleum product added with some fungistatic and bacteriostatic agents.

This is done by immersing the eggs placed in a specially prepared bomboo or wire basket in the drum or vessel containing the coating oil for 5 to 10 seconds. The basket is then taken out and placed on a drainage table or hung to a hanger for about an hour to drain of the oil. The are is collected for reuse. A pedestal fan may be used at the time of drainage so that the eggs get dried up simultaneously and are ready for storage. The coating oil can be used for any length of time with occasional filtration and sterilization.

The CFTRI scientists tested the efficacy of the technique in preservation of eggs in different seasons in different parts of the country. They found that shell eggs when treated with the coating oil by this technique can be kept in good condition for about 4 weeks at room temperature, 12 weeks at 55°F and 10 days at 100°F.

The cost of coating is estimated to be about 20 paise for 100 eggs.

The equipment required for coating eggs can be easily fabricated and manually operated. The design for this is available at the Institute.

The preservation technique developed at the Institute is of special value to our country in view of inadequate cold storage facilities, particularly during transport.

In the production of eggs the leading centres in India are Kerala, Punjab, Andhra and Maharashtra. Kerala alone supplies 3 5 lakhs of eggs per day to different parts of India. The methods employed at present in preservation and packing of eggs are not very satisfactory, and 5 10 per cent of the eggs are spoiled due to microbial infection during transit. Besides, the internal quality of eggs also deteriorates in transit when exposed to high humidity and temperature.

KannadaMedium In Mysore Varsity

Mysore, Oct. 11

Dr. Shrimali, Vice-Chancellor, announced yesterday that from the next academic year, Kannada would be the alternative medium of instruction in all degree classes of the Mysore University. Ultimately Kannada would be the sole medium, he added.

He was inaugurating the work on revising the English—Kannada dictionary, published by the Mysore University in 1946, after 14 years of labour.

The editorial committee headed by Prof. S V. Ranganna is expected to finish its work in three years.

Dr. Shrimali said that the education system was in a great mess as it had ignored the essential things of our life. Although the commission after commission had reaffirmed the need for introducing the regional language as the instruction medium, nothing had happened in this direction and in consequence the was an intellectual paralysis.

The root cause for all the disturbances in the academic field, he said, was that we had done nothing to canalise the energy of the youth and we had not provided opportunities for creative expression. This creative expression could come only through their own languages.

Dr. K. V. Puttappa, former vice chancellor, who presided said the revised dictionary would be of great value to the writers of Kannada textbooks.

Dr. Prabhu Shanker, Director of the Prasaranga, welcomed the gathering.

Prof. Javare Gowda proposed a vote of thanks.

BORDER PANEL WORK AFTER POLL

Bangalore, Oct. 11

Chief Minister Nijalingappa who returned yesterday after attending the Congress Working Committee told newsmen that the one man border Commission will start work only after the general elections.

He said Mysore would take immediate steps to prepare its case and place it before the Commission soon after it was appointed, because hearing both the parties' views before formulating its own terms of reference would be an important work the Commission would have to attend to.

The Chief Minister made it clear that the report of the Commission would have to be the last word on the dispute. 'After all, how long can we go on fighting on such issues', he asked.

Rail Disaster

9 KILLED AND 102 INJURED

Nine persons were killed and 102 others were injured, many of them seriously, in a railway accident yesterday at 4-30 a. m. on Belgaum Miraj line of the Hubli Division.

The engine and the tender derailed and two bogies next to the engine capazised of which one fell down a bridge into a stream. Three other bogies also derailed.

The accident is stated to be due to sabotage, as two fish plates had been found removed at the place of accident.

LACK OF INTERCOURSE CAUSE FOR UNREST

Congress President Kamaraj yesterday admitted that there was a growing lack off communication between the student community and the academic authorities as also public men who were charged with the duty to interpret to the new generation 'the meaning of new, free, equal and democratic society, we are engaged in building up'.

In a statement issued about the student unrest, he said in a developing country where opportunities for education were limited 'it is inevitable that the student community should experience some hardships and all their legitimate expectations are not fulfilled'.

Emphasising that the educational authorities and the Government had a duty to promptly look into these grievances, he cautioned that the real grievances of the students would be forgotten when they turned violent and indulged in destruction of public property as the main attention would then be focussed on judicial inquiry and alleged questions.

The last remedy, Sri Kamaraj said, however, was to create conditions in which any outbreak of disorder was a rare occurrence and for this the parents and guardians of students can and should be of great help.

DON'T RESORT TO STREET METHODS

Prime Minister Indira Gandhi yesterday appealed to the students to 'give up this habit of resorting to methods of streets and it does not befit educated people'.

She said revolt against any kind of authority to youths was a natural process necessary in the growth into adulthood but warned that urge to revolt was a force which could be used positively' negatively. Often Indian youths assert themselves because their elders were unresponsive. 'This lack of response is one of the greatest shortcomings of our administrative and economi life'.

EDUCATION BLAMED FOR UNREST

Sri K. Gopalan, Communist MP stated yesterday at Bangalore that the present wave of student unrest was the result of the frustration they faced under the existing system of education.

He said although the immediate provocation for the troubles seemed to be police excesses, the cause was deep rooted. It was time a thorough study was made of the present pattern of education.

CADETS ATTACK BUS CONDUCTORS

About 600 National Cadet Corps boys yesterday attacked the Calcutta Esplande bus stand and canteen following an altercation over payment of bus fare. Eight drivers and conductors of the Calcutta State Transport Corporation were injured.

Trouble started when two NCC boys travelling in a bus refused to pay the fare claiming exemption. This led to an exchange of hot words and later these boys along with their colleagues attacked the bus stand.

Security Force For Varsity

Each University should have a special security force under the control of the Vice-Chancellor for use at his discretion. The special force is to be financed by the respective State Governments.

This was decided at the panel of Vice Chancellors and educationists, meeting yesterday at Delhi.

It underlined the immediate need for action to establish better educational facilities and communications with students.

The conference agreed to the holding of a meeting of student leaders and others concerned to discuss its recommendations to deal with student unrest, both short—term and long—term.

As short term measures, the conference suggested that effective personal contacts between teachers and students should be encouraged. Provision should be made for strengthening libraries, reading seats and supply of textbooks. There should also be facilities for establishing contact between university and college and the community in the form of extension work.

Student—teacher joint committees should be established to deal with indiscipline, needs, difficulties and grievances of students.

The conference was of the view that there should be proper communication between university authorities, State authorities and the public.

CMs MUST KEEP ALOOF FROM VARSITY AFFAIRS

University Vice Chancellors who conferred with Union Home Minister Nanda on the present student unrest asked him to request the Chief Ministers not to interfere with the university affairs and to see that the police behaved in a civilised manner.

They also complained about the inordinate delay in implementing decisions concerning the universities. Such delays sometimes resulted in explosive situations and emergencies that got out of control.

The Vice-Chancellors also criticised active participation by teachers in politics and the organisation of student unions owing allegiance to particular political parties.

Education Minister Chagla said there was a sense of frustration among students, a feeling of non-participation and lack of a sense of belonging.

He said appointment in universities was made on political considerations and this led to the students' lack of respect for teachers and Vice-Chancellors.

PRESIDENT'S POSER TO STUDENTS

President Radhakrishnan yesterday posed a serious question to the student community to consider whether by violent agitations they helped in bringing about a revolution in the country based on effective democracy, or they arrested its progress.

He urged them to do a little 'self searching' and think whether they did the right thing—whether what they did was beneficial to themselves and the masses in general in the country.

The President also advised leaders in the country to set an example of decency if they wanted good behaviour from the students. He emphasised that our leaders should put an example of clean and honest life. If they took to agitational approach leading to disturbances, it was no use blaming the students.

Dr. Radhakrishnan said he had been a teacher for a greater part of his life. He knew the suffering and sacrifice. If there was anything wrong with them today it was nothing but a tragedy.

Pointing out some of the causes of student unrest, he said the students today seemed to have no purpose in life. There was also a question before them as to what good the present education was going to do for them

In his opinion what was essential to be done was that students should be given such education which inculcated in them a spiritual outlook not in class rooms but in all homes.

He said an atmoshere of agitations in the country was partly responsible for students unrest. What the leaders did, it was followed as an example.

The people were agitating on economic issues like rise in prices and there was unrest owing to scarcity conditions. They should go out and deal with the situation on the spot, placing trust in society, and giving immediate relief.

Secondly, there should be a warning system of anticipating problems and dealings with them before they burst out.

Thirdly there, should be fusion of understanding with the people who were suffering. For this, they should set up examples in the administration and political life.

No Resignation Says Patil

Railway Minister S. K. Patil stated at Calcutta yesterday that he would not oblige those who were demanding his resignation in view of the recent railway accidents.

He accused certain political elements of indulging in sabotage in the railways with the idea of creating a civil commotion and "thus gain political advantage for themselves".

Such saboteurs should be shot at sight or if caught, given capital punishment, Sri Patil said.

Describing the attacks on railways and destruction of valuable property as "most anti social and most inhuman acts", he said these cost the nation dearly.

He said as many as 30 railway stations were burnt during the recent steel plant demonstrations in Andhra and the total loss suffered was to the tune of several crores of rupees. The loss sustained in the recent disturbances in West Bengal would amount to two crores, he added.

SUSPICIOUS DEALING BY MSRTC

Bangalore, Nov. 25

The Public Accounts Committee in its report on the Appropriation and Finance Accounts for 1963 64 and the audit report 1965 has observed that the standard of efficiency and sense of responsibility in dealing with public funds in many departments left much to be desired.

It has expressed suspicion over the purchase of chasis by the MSRTC. "The entire transaction throws a suspicion that the deal is not straight", it has said.

It has felt that the Government should order a thorough probe into the matter by setting up a commission of inquiry.

There is no hope of minimising the losses incurred by the silk filatures unless the industry was put on a rational basis. It is not desirable to run the industry at a heavy loss year after year, it has said.

NO NEED TO SHUT DOWN MILLS

The Lok Sabha was assured by Commerce Minister Manubhai Shah that there was no reason to take an alarmist view of the current cotton scarcity, nor was there any justification for mills to close for 15 days as the Indian Cotton Mills Federation recommended

The Minister conceded that there was fall in cotton production of about 700,000 bales. He, however, assured that with the stepped up imports of 800,000 bales and more equitable distribution of available cotton, there would be no need for any mill to shut down.

Cause For Youth Restlessness

Mysore, Nov. 28

The youth of the country today had to face a crisis of instability and insecurity and this had resulted in their restlessness, stated Vice Chancellor K.L. Shrimali here yesterday

Addressing the Jaycees at the Multi Chapter Conference organised by the Mysore Junior Chamber, he said this had happened because there was lack of proper leadership to guide and give a sense of direction and purpose to them.

The Vice-Chancellor said that in the present transitional period, with full of stress and strides, the holds that kept the youth together were snapping. The reasons for this were social, economic and political causes. The development of science and technology had helped further in this process.

The youth of the country had come forward to sacrifice at times of crisis. They had talent and the capacity to do hard work. It was the task of the leaders to tackle the youth problem on all fronts instead of dealing it as an isolated one. Their capacity to do hard work and sacrifice should be mobilised and utilised. Unless this was done the youth problem could not be solved, Dr. Shrimali said.

Earlier, Area Vice President P. Jagannath welcomed the Vice Chancellor. Chamber President Smt. Usha Kumari proposed a vote of thanks.

Sri Baliga called upon the Jaycees to make a thorough studyand bring out data of the human material available in the country so that it could be applied to the best advantage.

Speaking about Parliamentary democracy, he said democracy would be halthy only when there was a compromise between the ruling party and the Opposition. The majority party should give full opportunities to the minority party. It should be also ralised that Opposition does not mean obstruction but eliciting information.

Sri Shivajirao Nikam welcomed the gathering. Sri Rangaswamy read the messages.

NO DECISION ON RATION CUT

Food Minister Subramaniam told the Lok Sabha that the food situation and the question whether there should be any cut in the rations would be reviewed by the middle of December.

He said while the Government was making all efforts to fill up a gap of about 2 4 lakh tonnes of foodgrains in January and arrange for a monthly supply of eight lakh tonnes from February onwards, no other country except the United States was in a position to supply India's large demends for food. Nor was it possible to import foodgrains on a large scale because of the difficult foreign exchange position.

While expressing concern about a break in foreign food shipments in December, the Minister hoped a new agreement would be signed very soon with the U.S.

He said the Government had no information about the alleged suspension of grain shipments by the U.S. Administration.

Sri Subramaniam said that there was no question of any food freeze by the US regarding commitments that had already been made for the supply of wheat during the current year. The US had already honoured its commitment. For the supply of food for 1967, the US had to enter into new commitments and they were considering India's request.

He denied that US had brought any pressures, either economic or political, on India. They were only saying that India should reach self-sufficiency in food.

COERCIVE METHODS CONDEMNED

President Radhakrishnan yesterday expressed disquiet and alarm at the tendency developing among certain political elements to resort to methods 'which are a denial to others of the democratic rights which they claim for themselves.'

Condemning coercion of people to participate in bundhs, and attempts to paralyse public services and utilities and similar agitational means, he said, they were not only an abuse of political privilege but constituted a dangerous threat to our democratic way of life.

"We should not inflame the passions of ordinary people which are always difficult to control", he added.

The President called for stringent measures to ensure the maintenance of law and order during general election so that the voter is not prevented by force or fraud from exercising this right freely.

Student agitations, Dr. Radhakrishnan thought, were indicative of not only the present economic and individual frustrations but also of certain inherent weakness on the structure and functioning of educational institutions.

Among these were the lack of contact between the students and the teacher and absence of sufficient recreational and extramural activities which could divert the former from negative pursuits

Solve Vagaries Of Nature

DR. KNOX's ADVICE TO YOUTH

Mysore, Dec. 3

The Most Rev. Dr. James Robert Knox, the Vatican Envoy in India, who visited the St. Philomena's College, yesterday, was pleased to note some new progress in the college and said that new opportunities for acquisition of learning could do much for the country of tomorrow.

Addressing the students, Dr. Knox said today India 'finds itself in very difficult circumstances following a series of bad seasons. This is not new in the history of the country, but the need to overcome the vagaries of nature is urgent. It is very important for the young generation to be aware of it and come forward in solving it There is no room for defeatism, even in the face of recurrence of drought, for India has vast resources which can still be utilised and there is so much that science can do for the welfare of the people.'

He said great openings were laid before the young generation. Science should be applied to agricultural development and therefore it was important that the students should channel their energies towards the scientific treatment of agriculture.

Dr. Knox also referred to India's population explosion, which, he said, was the greatest obstacle to the economic breakthrough which was urgently needed He pleaded for raise in the marriage age so that it might reduce the population and also help in the education of women.

Have Consequent Thinking: V-P.

Mysore, Dec. 15

"It is the universities that we look for guidance in scientific and constructive methods of thought", declared Vice-President Zakir Hussain here today.

Addressing new graduates of Mysore University in the annual Convocation at the Crawford Hall, the Vice-President said that circumstances now made it urgent for us to give concrete forms to whatever idealism we claimed for ourselves, as the university campus in the beginning more and more reflected certain unpleasant aspects of the conditions outside.

"If we ever thought that we could reflect and decide at leisure, it is obvious that we connot do so now. We have to act and act rightly and effectively", he said.

Dr. Zakir Hussain reminded the youngmen that the survival of democracy in India depended on the means that we adopted to attain our objectives. "You will not find anything perfect, and many things very imperfect indeed in your country as in any other. It is your duty, as citizens, to strive to improve, to the best of your ability, whatever needs to be improved. But you must be scrupulous and circumspect in the means you choose for the performance of your duties", he said.

Advising that we must cultivate the habit of consequent thinking, Dr. Zakir Hussain said Opposition to the Government in a democracy must be inspired and guided by a deeper loyalty to the interest of the State.

Democratic onposition ceases to be truly democratic if it becomes a kind of bull-baiting. It should not consist in the adoption of the quickest and easiest means of provoking the Government to take violent action, so that retaliation and further provocation can be disguised as a demand for justice.

WARM WELCOME TO VICE-PRESIDENT

Give Training In Citizenship: V-P.

Mysore, Dec. 16

Vice-President Zakir Hussain called upon the civic authorities to train citizenship among the people from the very begining with a sense of pride.

Replying to the Civic address presented to him by the Mysore City Municipal Council at the Townhall yesterday, he said the working of a civic authority depended upon the citizenship of the people.

The civic authorities should find means and places of inculcating citizenship. It was not only in education imparted in schools run by the municipal councils, but also in various other fields like labourers, citizens attending meetings and others that civic sense could be imparted.

The Vice-President narating an incident in a foreign town where he was greeted by every school-going child, said for them it had become a way of life. There is a great virtue in doing small things. Big things should also be done but small things in life should not be neglected, he said.

Praising Mysore City for retaining its cleanliness, Dr. Hussin said the city had remained same even after 15 years, the last time he visited, whereas other towns had grown untidy. Even today it is one of the best cities in the country.

But there is nothing which is perfect. There will be something to be done for further improvement. Hence the Municipality should make it prettier and better. He expressed the hope that Mysore City would come up and set an example to other towns.

Civic Chief M. K. Lingiah, who presented an address, requested the Vice-President's support for the 'Nehru Loka' scheme, conversion of Bangalore-Mysore metre gauge into broad gauge and extension of Chamarajanagar railway line upto Satyamangalam.

New Pattern For Farm Research

Bangalore, Dec. 20

Union Food Minister Subramaniam yesterday pleaded for a new pattern of research administration which would take into account the special needs of agricultural research and would avoid all procedural delays which could lead to the loss of a whole season in experimental work.

Delivering the first convocation address of the Agricultural University at Hebbal, Sri Subramaniam regretted that much of the time and money spent on education and research was not producing the desired results.

He said it was a poignant enigma that while the country had a large number of scientists, intellectuals and skilled and devoted workers in contrast to most other developing nations, it had coincidentally also one of the lowest economic growth-rates. This could only imply that the knowledge and skill the country possessed were not applied to transform its natural sources into a form which could help to raise the living standards of the people.

The Minister pointed out that the country's immediate research efforts in the field of agriculture should be problem-oriented and the existing meagre resources of competent scientists and research facilities should be canalised into purposeful directions.

Sri Subramaniam exhorted the new agricultural graduates to accept the 'greatest challenge any human being should like to have'-increasing food production for a hungry nation, with boldness and determination.

Plea For Food Self-Sufficiency

Mysore, Dec. 21

Union Food Minister Subramaniam stated yesterday that our country cannot survive as an independent nation unless we become self-sufficient and are in a position to feed our teeming millions.

Addressing the scientists and research workers of the Central Food Technological Research Institute, here, Sri Subramaniam stressed the need for growing more food and at the same time making the best use of what they produced.

"In our efforts to break away from the backwardness and save the losses during processing, storage and handling of food materials, the CFTRI is playing an important role", he said.

The Minister said: "The survival of our nation depends upon the application of science and technology for the economic betterment of our people." For this, he wanted, a congenial atmoshphere, proper opportunities and facilities to be created for the scientists to work efficiently and effectively.

Sri Subramaniam thought that the present system of administrative set up stood in the way of efficient functioning of scientists. He pleaded that atleast in scientific institutions they should break away from the traditional system of administration. "Our first priority should be to revitalise the functioning of our scientific institutions so that they can play their rightful role".

Referring to the brain-drain among scientists, the Minister said that a new system should be evolved not only to attract talented and eminent Indian scientists to return from abroad but also to provide them with adequate facilities, congenial atmosphere and a decent income.

Director Parpia welcoming assured fullest co-operation of the Institute in tackling the country's food problem. He told the Minister that the work of CFTRI has been given a project-orientation with a definite time target to solve the food problem in the country.

STUDENT UNREST DUE TO OUTSIDERS

Dr. Lakshmanaswamy Mudaliar, Vice-Chancellor of Madras University, said yesterday that the root cause for much of the troubles in universities life was not in the university, was not amidst the students, but largely in the element who believed that it had responsibilities far beyond what it could discharge and powers far too incredible to contemplate.

He said that 'other forces have exercised their deleterious influence' and by constantly whitting down the powers and responsibilities of university authority they 'undermined the work and responsibilities of universitity'.

2.5 Lakh Kids Killed In Vietnam

American bombing and other military activities had killed more than 250,000 children in Vietnam since 1961, according to a report by the head of the Catholic institution in New York.

The photographs showed mutilated children, flesh eaten away by napalm, raw skin and faces smashed by shell bursts.

There were children without arms or legs, children stuck behind barbed wire and children dragging themselves across the ground on the sites of destroyed villages.

In addition to the dead, more than 750,000 children had been wounded, mutilated and burned by napalm.

Thousands upon thousands were suffering from malnutrition and infectious diseases in overcrowded hospitals lacking equipment.

The report said since half the South Vietnamese population were aged less than 16 and all males over 16 were fighting, it was certain that at least 70 percent of victims of napalm bomb raids on villages were children.

Youth Festival To be Annual Feature

IN MYSORE VARSITY

Mysore, Dec. 24

Vice-Chancellor Shrimali announced here today that the Mysore University proposed to hold the varsity youth festival every year.

He was inaugurating the three-day inter-collegiate youth festival, organised in connection with the golden jubilee celebrations.

Dr. Shrimali said that such youth festivals would provide opportunities to the youth to express themselves in creative ways instead of destructive ways.

The restlessness found among the youth was not their fault. They had abundant energy and this had to be channalised properly, he said.

The Vice-Chancellor told the youth that 'whatever you do, think and act, you must put some criteria or ideas before you, by which you can test your behaviour and character'.

The youth had to remember three basicideals truth, beauty and goodness. These three ideals should always fit in to their action.

Dr. Shrimali said that Mysore University was trying to develop a community spirit. The community, he said, could function effectively if every one—teachers, students and workers—share their thoughts, joys and sorrows together.

He advised the students that if they had any problems and difficulties, they should discuss them with their teachers.

If all worked together and drew a common line of action, then the university could make its impact on society, he added.

'It is not mere buildings or scientific instruments that make a university great. It is the young men and women with vision and ideals, character and behaviour that would make a university great'.

Dr. Keshav Hegde, chairman of the festival committee, welcoming said that 40 colleges in the State were participating in the festival.

Sri D.V. Urs proposed a vote of thanks.

ANTI-SOCIALIST FORCES FAVOURED

Sri V. K. Krishna Menon stated in Bombay yesterday that he had resigned from the Congress because he felt that he could not any more make "any constructive contribution" to the country's progress by remaining within the party.

Addressing a press conference, Sri Menon said he had no differences with the basic objective of socialism of the Congress. But he did have differences "over the speed and adequacy" of implementation.

He said that in his view the selections of Congress candidates generally were such that if all of them won, the "next Parliament would be weighed in favour of anti-Socialist forces".

DISCRIMINATION, SAYS PURI SWAMI

Jagadguru Sankaracharya of Puri, who continued his fast for the 38th day yesterday, said that "the difference in the attitude of the Government to the fasts of the Sadhus on the issue of banning cow slaughter, had forced us to consider changing our ways for the achievement of our cause".

"It only proved that might is right, and the Government is afraid of those who can threaten violence. They won't listen to non-violent sadhus".

The Swamiji added; "We cannot consider indulging in anti-social or violent activities to achieve our object. But are free to adopt other ways".

PLEA FOR REASSESSING INDIAN HISTORY

Mysore, Dec. 29

"If the history is to have meaning for our generation, it must be pertinent to the hopes, fears and aspirations of the present generation", said Dr. K. L. Shrimali, Vice-Chancellor of the Mysore University, here today.

He was inaugurating the 28th session of the Indian History Congress at Maharaja's College Centenary Hall.

About 600 delegates from all over the country are attending the 3-day conference.

Dr. Shrimali said "India stands in great danger of further division. This danger can be averted if we do not take the political unity for granted but work for it and build it up systematically".

"We have inherited the cultural unity from the past by showing respect for multiplicity and diversity. The British have given us the administrative unity and it is for us and the future generation now to consolidate the political unity through a massive educational effort", he said.

The Vice-Chancellor told the historians that there was a fertile field for investigation of the innumerable incongruities that had become a part of our social, economic and political life and focus the attention of the planners and statesmen and thus make a substantial contribution in the evolution of our society.

Dr. Shrimali hoped that the study of our past would enable our people to recognise the evils in our way of life and at the same time inspire us to struggle against them.

President's Address

Dr. Ratna Prasad Saksena of Allahabad University in his presidential address stressed the need for reassessing the history of our country for keeping alive the interest of the present and the future generations in our past achievements and failures.

He said: "This stupendous undertaking requires an attitude which is untrammelled by hidebound traditions, and which is ready to raise above the patent illusions which have blurred the vision of our predecessors".

"The new approach without deviating from truth should be instructive and invigorating, enabling us to take a legitimate pride in the constructive genius of those who have gone before us".

Dr. Saksena said that the dynamic nature of history demanded that we should constantly respond to the changing ideals of life, that it should record not merely the events of the past but should assess them in terms of contemporary present. As history was a record of the creative genius of man, no phase of human life could remain beyond the ken of historians and no secret of human destiny beyond the scope of his probe.

Dr. Saksena warned the illusion that history devoid of utility as it was the concerns of contemporary life should be dispelled. To achieve this object there should be complete understanding and constant dialogue between the researcher and the teachers so that each might stand to benefit the other and both together might constantly help to inspire students.

Intellectual Revolution, PM's Call To Youth

Bangalore, Jan. 9

Prime Minister Indira Gandhi yesterday stressed the urgent need to match the revolution in technology by an upsurge of intellectual and creative questioning.

Delivering the convocation address of the Bangalore University, she said that all change encountred opposition from conservative forces but unless they won this battle 'we shall be condemned to mediocrity and hopes of new life will wilt'.

It was, therefore, she said, for the young people to bring about change because they had a greater stake in the future than the old generation. But to modernise India 'you must be clear about what needs to be discarded, what avoided and what retained and you must have pride in the country and its people'.

She told the young graduates that 'it is for you to build a society free from want, a society which can bring about change through law, a society which can find fulfilment in the happiness and equality of its citizens, a society which will ensure a life of enlightenment and will preserve its ancient values and the rich university of its culture while forging ahead without fear or prejudice'.

PM's CALL FOR ECONOMIC BATTLE

Bangalore, Jan. 9

Prime Minister Indira Gandhi yesterday stated that the struggle for economic freedom to complete the political freedom and making it purposeful to the people and posterity was not any less important.

Inaugurating the election campaign for the Congress, she said on the completion of this task depended their very survival or preservation of the freedom. If people failed to get food, clothing or shelter, what was the meaning of freedom for them, she asked.

Smt. Gandhi told the huge gathering that India's aim in taking the help from other countries that offered it was to build up the country's economy in such a way as to be self-reliant as soon as possible.

She recallad the bitter experience of last year when they faced the threat from Pakistan and when essential goods were denied to them because of this fighting. 'We then found that we were in the hanads of others. Therefore,it became allthe more essential for us to try to manufacture all the things we need ourselves so that they would not be denied to us at the time of similar crisis'.

Smt. Gandhi described the electoral alliance of the Opposition parties as 'curious' and said their main aim was to destory the Congress and not to help people.

She said the Congress was the only party which could go to the people with past achievements and a future programme.

Threat To Rule Of Law

Mysore, Jan. 11

Mysore High Court Justice T.K. Tukol said here yesterday that signs of threat to rule of law was being seen in the country, among the students, workers, agricultural labour and all around us.

Addressing the members of the Mysore Bar Association, Sri Tukol said Mahatma Gandhi always emphasised that the rule of law should prevail. Any defection or any violence was bound to reflect back on persons who adopt such measures. Unfortunately in our country now the methods adopted against the British were turning against us.

He told the members of the legal profession to realise the great responsibility thrown on them in this great democratic nation. "If we have to maintain the democratic republic, won after so much of sacrifice, it is high time we become conscious of the responsibility thrown on our shoulders, which is not merely the studying of the rule of law but become propagators for the rule of law, he said.

Sri Tukol regretted that the old approach to the study of law was going away. "India today can boast of hardly half a dozen justists, where as in Western countries with intellectual pursuit of law their number is increasing. It is unfortunate we have come to regard that study of law as merely a passport for a profession". This attitude has to change, he added.

Bar Association President L. Srikantayya welcomed and Secretary K. N Seetharam proposed a vote of thanks

Rare Manuscripts

Mysore, Jan. 16

Four rare manuscripts—three dictionaries and one encyclopaedia—have come to light at the Oriental Research Institute, here.

Out of three dictionaries, one is a Sanskrit-Sanskrit, belonging to 15th century, attributed to Shahajan, the Mogul king.

The other two are Sanskrit-Kannada dictionaries with 20,000 and 30,000 words in each.

The Sanskrit-Sanskrit encyclopaedia, an incomplete one, is said to belonging to 18th century.

'Don't Close Your Minds'

GOKAK'S ADVICE TO STUDENTS

Mysore, Jan. 31

Prof. V. K. Gokak, Vice-Chancellor of Bangalore University, told the students here last evening, not to formulate a programme or chalk out a philosophy until they had given a trial to all that was readable after finding out their inclinations.

Addressing the students of the Maharaja's College, Prof. Gokak spoke on 'some of his own intellectual adventures and misadventures.'

He described how he was a dreamer and later turned a Marxist and again became a dreamer-realist.

The Vice-Chancellor said the world was of two-fold—of dream and reality. What was needed was an understanding of the self and reconciliation between the solitude and the multitude.

He asked the students not to simplify the world but to understand its complexities. 'Do not close your minds but keep your windows open to allow the breezes of heaven to blow on you on all sides. Whatever philosophies are there, let us understand them,' he added.

He said: 'If only we keep our awareness alive and not get facilised and bound down to certain dogmas, that is where inspiration is born and that is something in life worth striving'.

Prof. Gokak concluded by saying: 'Let us work for the clear dawn and for the day on which our own motherland will be able to write in the book of fate of the morrow and that is more on the younger generation, for you have the whole world and the whole life before you, than for me.'

Prof. S. N. Shantaveerappa, Principal welcomed the Vice-Chancellor.

Sri Syed Iqbal Khadri proposed a vote of thanks.

'Don't Close Your Minds'

GOKAK'S ADVICE TO STUDENTS

Mysore, Jan. 31

Prof. V. K. Gokak, Vice-Chancellor of Bangalore University, told the students here last evening, not to formulate a programme or chalk out a philosophy until they had given a trial to all that was readable after finding out their inclinations.

Addressing the students of the Maharaja's College, Prof. Gokak spoke on 'some of his own intellectual adventures and misadventures.'

He described how he was a dreamer and later turned a Marxist and again became a dreamer-realist.

The Vice-Chancellor said the world was of two-fold—of dream and reality. What was needed was an understanding of the self and reconciliation between the solitude and the multitude.

He asked the students not to simplify the world but to understand its complexities. 'Do not close your minds but keep your windows open to allow the breezes of heaven to blow on you on all sides. Whatever philosophies are there, let us understand them,' he added.

He said: 'If only we keep our awareness alive and not get facilised and bound down to certain dogmas, that is where inspiration is born and that is something in life worth striving'.

Prof. Gokak concluded by saying: 'Let us work for the clear dawn and for the day on which our own motherland will be able to write in the book of fate of the morrow and that is more on the younger generation, for you have the whole world and the whole life before you, than for me.'

Prof. S. N. Shantaverappa, Principal welcomed the Vice-Chancellor.

Sri Syed Iqbal Khadri proposed a vote of thanks.

Democracy In India Is Alive

Mysore, Feb. 9

Mr. John Grigg, UK Political Commentator, said here yesterday that he was greatly stimulated with the vitality of Indian democracy and his country could greatly learn from India where democracy was living.

Addressing the students and the teachers at the Maharaja's College, Mr. Grigg said democracy had survived in India despite difficulties because of the great sense of tolerance of Indian people.

He said multiplicity of parties did weaken Governments. It was possible for India to combine all parties and evolve a two-party system. But even the two party system had certain disadvantages of becoming too rigid.

Answering a question about anti-Indian version in a section of the Biritish Press during the Indo-Pakistan conflict, he said this was due to ignorace on the part of writers and not with any hostile feelings.

About corruption and democracy, he said there was certain amount of hypocritic comment in the west about corruption in Governments of the east. Even in the US, which had a dynamic democratic set up, there was 'profound corruption' and the political system was highly corrupt.

Vice-Chancellor K. L. Shrimali presided. Principal Shanathaveerappa welcomed the chief guest and Sri Syed Iqbal Khadri proposed a vote of thanks.

RELEASE OF NGOs

Bangalore, Feb. 9

The State Government has ordered the release of all NGOs detained under the Preventive Detention Act and all charge-sheets against them are being withdrawn.

This order does not apply to Smt. Davasia, President of the NGOs association, S. Venkataram, a trade union leader and Shamsundar of the Reserve Bank Employees Union.

PAK DEMAND REJECTED

India yesterday rejected the Pakistani demand for a joint inquiry into the circumstances in which the intruding Pakistani air-craft was shot down by an Indian Air Force fighter 30 km inside Indian territory on Feb. 2. It was rejected on the ground that circumstances "do not justify" such a probe. The Indian Government, however, offered to return the wreckage of the aircraft.

PM Hurt By Stone Hit

Prime Minister Indira Gandhi was hit by a stone on her face last evening at an election meeting at Bhubaneswar.

The stonning of the dias from where she was addressing followed persistent hooting and heckling by a large crowd of young men, reported to be students.

Throughout her speech, she could not be heard due to the hooting. She raised her voice, admonished the crowd for its behaviour and said she would not give in to this kind of hooliganism. But it had no effect on the hecklers.

The medical examination later revealed injury to the nucus membrane inside the right nostril and bruises on the left side of the upper lip.

Seven persons were arrested in this connection.

DON'T SWAY BY CASTE! VOTERS TOLD

Mysore, Feb. 11

Prof A.R. Wadiya told the voters in the coming elections not to be swayed by considerations of caste and narrow religious loyalties.

Speaking on 'Democracy, on the other side' under the auspices of the Indian Institute of Social Science at Gandhi Vichara Parishat yesterday, Prof. Wadia said voting in India had largely been influenced by considerations of the individual and his caste inspite of the battle waged by great saints and seers. If democracy was to succeed this feeling among the voters should go, he said.

Inspite of certain disadvantanges democracy was the only system which we could have in our country and it was high time we became enlightened and observe the rules of democracy properly, he added.

Prof. M. Yamunacharya presided. Sri K. S. Narayanaswamy proposed a vote of thanks.

The Union Cabinet yesterday decided to end the concessional imports of wheat after 1971.

It approved a crash programme for stepping up food output in 1967-68 through extension of the high-yielding varieties programme to 15 million acres of land with assured irrigation facilities against 6.2 million acres covered during 1966-67.

The high-yielding varieties programme will be supplemented by a new multiple cropping programme under which additional crops in about 7.5 million acres of irrigated land will be grown during 1967-68.

The Cabinet has decided that to make this possible the target of achieving self-sufficiency in the production of foodgrains by 1970-71 is to be pursued vigorously and all necessary support in the shape of inputs and organisation will be made available.
